will be taken of anonymous communica

VOL. XLV. NO. 52.

TIONESTA, PA., WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1913.

$1.00 PER ANNUM.

Other Liquor Measures to Resi

Awhile in Committee

Measure That Would Give State Al-

For Vocational Education in Penn

The house law and order committee be the part of wisdom to not oppose with the liquor men on this propos

The Rockwell bill would allow divisions of a county voting together

State aid for vocational education would be provided by bills introduced into the house by C. M. C. Campbell of Allegheny and Harry M. Showalter

panion pieces and were prepared in the department of public instruction.

They are credited with having the support of the state board of education board of education to investigate and agricultural and household arts educa tion and to initiate and superintend the establishment and maintenance of schools and departments for vocation

These definitions are set out in the

"Vocational education means any education, the controlling purpose of which is to fit for profitable employ ment. Industrial education means to fit for the trades, crafts and manu facturing pursuits, including the occu pations of girls and women carried on in workshops. Agricultural educa tion fits for the occupations connected with the tillage of the soil, the care of resolution, providing for a commission to investigate the subject of mothers' pensions and report to the next legislature. This action indicates that nothing will be done at this session in the way of mothers' pension laws.

When the lists were drawn the county

Under a bill by Representative Kern of Montgomery rabbits, squirrels and pheasants could not be killed or captured during the season except on Mondays, Fridays and Saturdays. He also has a measure to make a closed season of five years on quail, begin-

The old Quay county bill is back again, having been introduced by W.

L. Adams of Luzerne. Under its provisions a new county would be carved out of lower Luzerne and upper Among bills finally passed in the Bigger-To prohibit the making o any merchandise, securities or serv ing to truant officers the enforcement:

also bill prohibiting and punishing frauds where minors are employed in

Allen-Repealing act of assembly

Among new bills introduced were records of criminals during trial of McAleer-Regulating the custody of Scott, S. B.-Amending penal code.

Allen-Repealing acts for prevent-

No Gouging at Inauguration.

The Johnson bill to prohibit Washington hotels and boarding houses from raising their prices for the inauguration and extending the came restrictions to cabs and taxicabs, with penalty of a fine of $100 for each violation, was favorably reported to the Ohio's Oldest Mason Celebrates.

John C. Moore of Weston, O., cele brated his ninety-first birthday. Mr.

General Woodford Dies.

General Stewart L. Woodford, ex-

United States minister to Spain, died

Moore is Ohlo's oldest Mason

in New York last week.

for sale of bread by the pound.

ing clandestine marriages.

ices and providing penalties.

anthracite collieries.

cation of income tax amendment.

ning on Nov. 1, 1913.

Schuylkill.

with the household."

al education.

The Showalter bill directs the state of Union. The measures are com amendment.

BOROUGH OFFICERS

tions. Always give your name.

Burgess .- J. C. Dunn. Justices of the Peace-C. A. Randah, D. W. Clark. incumen. - J. W. Landers, J. T. Dale, B. Robinson, Wm. Smearbaugh, J. Hopkins, G. F. Watson, A. B.

FOREST COUNTY OFFICERS.

Member of Congress—P. M. Speer, Member of Senate—J. K. P. Hall, Assembly—A. R. Mechling, President Judge—W. D. Hinckley, Associate Judges—Samuel Aui, Joseph

Associate Judges-Samuel Aul, Joseph M. Morgan.
Prothonotary, Register & Recorder, &c.
-S. R. Maxwell.
Sheriff-Wm, H. Hood.
Treasurer-W, H. Brazee.
Commissioners-Wm, H. Harrison, J.
C. Scowden, H. H. McClellan.
District Attorney-M. A. Carringer.
Jury Commissioners-J. B. Eden, A. M. Moore.

Moore.
Coroner—Dr. M. C. Kerr.
County Auditors—George H. Warden,
A. C. Gregg and S. V. Shields.
County Surveyor—Roy S. Braden. County Superintendent-J. O Carson.

Regular Terms of Court.

Fourth Monday of February.
Third Monday of May.
Fourth Monday of September,
Third Monday of November.
Regular Meetings of County Commissioners 1st and 3d Tuesdays of month.

Church and Sabbath School. Presbyterian Sabbath School at 9:45 a.m.; M. E. Sabbath School at 10:00 a.m. Preaching in M. E. Church every Sab-bath evening by Rev. W. S. Burton. Preaching in the F. M. Church every Sabbath evening at the usual hour. Rev.

A. Garrett, Pastor. Preaching in the Presbyterian church every Sabbath at II:00 a. m. and 7:30 p m. Rev. H. A. Bailey, Pastor, The regular meetings of the W. C. T. U. are held at the headquarters on the and fourth Tuesdays of each

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

TI NESTA LODGE, No. 369, L.O. O. F 1 Meets every Tuesday evening, in Odd Fellows' Hall, Partridge building.

CAPT. GEORGE STOW POST, No. 274 noon of each month at 3 o'clock.

CAPT. GEORGE STOW CORPS, No. 137, W. R. C., meets first and third Wednesday evening of each month.

T. F. RITCHEY.

M. A. CARRINGER,
Attorney and Counsellor-at-Law.
Office over Forest County National Bank Building,
TIONESTA, PA TIONESTA, PA.

CURTIS M. SHAWKEY,
Warren, Pa Practice in Forest Co.

C BROWN, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW Office in Arner Building, Cor. Eim and Bridge Sts., Tionesta, Pa.

FRANK S. HUNTER, D. D. S.
Rooms over Citizens Nat. Bank, HONESTA, PA.

Physician & Surgeon TIONESTA, PA. Eyes Tested and Glasses Fitted.

DR. J. B. SIGGINS, Physician and Surgeon, OIL CITY, PA.

DR. M. W EASTON, OSTEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN, of Oil City, Pa., will visit Tionesta every Wednesday. See him at the Central House. Setting bones and treatment of nervous and chronic diseases a specialty. Greatest success in all kinds of chronic

HOTEL WEAVER,
J. B. PIERCE, Proprietor
Modern and up to-date in all its appointments. Every convenience and comfort provided for the traveling public

CENTRAL HOUSE, CENTRAL HOUSE,
R. A. FULTON, Proprietor Tionseta, Pa. This is the most centrally located hotel in the place, and has all the modern improvements. No pains will be spared to make it a pleasant stopping place for the traveling public.

DHIL. EMERT

FANCY BOOT & SHOEMAKER Shop over R. L. Haslet's grocery store on Elm street. Is prepared to do all ginds of custom work from the finest to give perfect satisfaction. Prompt atten-tion given to mending, and prices rea-

JAMES HASLET. GENERAL MERCHANT Furniture Dealer,

-AND-

UNDERTAKER. TIONESTA, PENN

Next to Sunlight

MEXICO CITY FIGHT RESUMED

Kelly.
Constable—L. L. Zuver.
Collector—W. H. Hood.
School Directors—W. C. Imel, J. R.
School Directors—W. C. Imel, J. R.
School Directors—W. G. Jamieson, D. H.
Seeks to Improve Position

AMERICANS NOW IN SAFETY

Fresident Taft In Pursuance of His Plan to Be Ready For Invasion Has Arranged For Transport Service

The truce between Madero and Diaz the contestants for control in Mexico City ended by mutual consent severa hours be ore the time originally Machine guns on the roof of the arsenal at once began sweeping San Juan Plaza south of the Alameda where the federals had been taking positions for a renewal of the assaults on the rebel fortress.

There was little heavy gun firing but General Huerta had placed Maxims on the roofs of the tallest build ings in the neighborhood of San Juan market and was attempting to get into closer range with the arsenal.

Later there were sorties from the arsenal and Felicistas and Maderistas fought with the bayonet in the narrow streets between the market and the citadel. The hand-to-hand fighting was urious on the west side of the Plaza

The ancient church of San Josede Losnaturales was subjected to the incessant volleys from the rebel guns and was damaged.

the American residents are safer today than at any time since the revolt began. Although the end of the truce came sooner than expected there was sufficient time for the American imbassador to remove hundreds of his countrymen from the center of the ity to the Colono Remana and the

The diplomatic corps have not lost ope of bringing about peace, but the difficulties are admittedly enormous. Diaz insists that he will not cease firing on the palace until Madero and the government resign and until he has received absolute guarantees that the Madero influence is at an end. the president, contemptuous of the action, holds fast to his office supportd by General Huerta.

The truce was broken when General Diaz found that the federals were digging entrenchments and advancing heavy guns. The rebel commander immediately turned his Maxims upo the Maderistas, holding that the president had violated the armistice Nearly 500 Americans have left the city for Puebla. Trains have been running toward the gulf and the frontier with fair regularity, but few seonle have entered the city.

The capital was almost gay on Sunday for the first time since the revoit began. The armistice encouraged thousands back to the center of the ity. The shops were open, several of the larger markets received supplies rom the country and people were able o buy food and other necessaries.

From dawn until afternoon the streets were crowded. There was everlsh activity. Offizens staggered under burdens of food and clothing which they were removing to places of refuge. The well-to-do were able to obtain cash from the banks and there was more money in circulation han had been seen in the city for eight days. The greatest boon of all was the opportunity given to the Red and White lross organizations and to volunteer anitary organizations to remove such things as imperilled health and were n a way to produce pestilence.

adescribable. The forty acres of the f horses. The cavalry had used the had drawn destructive shelling from he arsenal. In many of the principal wreckage of buildings.

Friday by the explosion of a shell in of Mexicans directed by Americans, refer to the illiteracy test." Spanish and German doctors, were ible to remove many of these bodies and to lessen to some extent the peril pestilence. Great heaps of garbage were burned een contaminated. recognized none of the laws of cividueled at a range of from four to the appropriation of last year. twenty blocks, sweeping the finest streets of the city with their shells. Night and day the people were alarmed by the terrific roar of the can. nonading and were driven from quarter to quarter as the zone of fight-ng extended. All classes suffered. Dozens of fine residences were vrecked. Some of the most ornamental | Bulgarians, colldings of the capital will have to be rebuilt at enormous expense number of dead in the week's fighting office. at 1,000 and the number of wounded at more than 1,500. This includes citizens and foreign residents as well as soldiers.

Ruined Part of Mexico City; Destination of U. S. Ships

The upper map shows location of the arsenal held by Diaz and his rebels and the American consulate, with the Y. M. C. A. building, which was shot full of holes. The lower map shows Vera Cruz, Tampico and other points where the United States battleships are due to atrive.

killed and 200 wounded. The federal troops, because of their hopeless frontal attacks on the arsenal in the face of deadly machine gun fire, lost probably 600 killed and probably 1,000 in wounded.

Army Transportation Arranged. Although at the state and navy de-coming from the city of Mexico are wildly exaggerated, it became known that as early as last Thursday the Southern Pacific company for the charter of two of the largest vessels trapping the accused legislators. of the Morgan line for the purpose of ports to gulf ports.

At a meeting of the Southern Pacific directors in New York last Thursday ment was discussed, and while it was wishes two vessels on a moment's notice as was requested, the vessels will be forthcoming.

The government has offered the Southern Pacific $75,000 each for a month's charter of two of its largest and most powerful vessels. The vessels mentioned are the Comus and the Antilles, either of which would be capable of transporting about 2,200 troops on each trip and either vessel New York to New Orleans in four days and to other gulf points in a little longer time, providing these points are nearer to the Mexican border.

VETO FOR IMMIGRATION BILL

Taft Cannot Accept Measure Because of Illiteracy Test Provision.

President Taft vetoed the immigration bill, believing that the illiteracy test prescribed would not prove satis-For a week the sanitation has been factory and would be objectionable. ator Lodge, who has charge of the Alameda were strewn with the bodies | measure, announced that an effort would be made to pass it over the veto ark for bivouacs and their position and there is a good chance of success. "I do this with great reluctance," said Taft. "The bill contains many streets bodies of soldiers and of citi- valuable amendments to the present zens had lain for days buried under immigration law which will insure greater certainty in excluding unde-In San Juan de Lentran street sirable immigrants. But I cannot make chief provision violates a principle quartered. The volunteers, made up in dealing with our immigration. I

> Allegheny Canal Bill Reported. Canalization of the Allegheny river from Lock No. 3 at Springdale, Pa., to Mahoning, sixty miles from Pittsn the streets and in the squares, Sani- burg, is given impetus by the action ation experts examined the water sup- of the senate commerce committee, ply for the purpose of seeing if it had which reported the bill already passed by the house. As framed by the sea-For seven days a city of 500,000 ate committee the measure carries a cople had endured warfare which total of $46,572,958, which is $5,700, 900 more than was appropriated by lized fighting. Six-inch field guns had the house and $20,000,000 more than

BULGARS REPULSE TURKS

of 1,000 Men. Two attempted sorties by the be-

Two Attempted Sorties Result in Loss eaguered Turkish garrison of Adrianople last week were repulsed by the

The Turks lost more than 1,000 killed and wounded, according to the A conservative estimate places the official report of the Bulgarian war

Castro Given Liberty. Ex-Dictator Castro of Venezuela in free to roam at will over the country. heaviest losers. Diaz lost probably 50 ' his habeas corpus writ

12 INDICTMENTS ARE RETURNED

Six West Virginia Solons Now Charged With Bribery

INVESTIGATION WILL CONTINUE

True Bills Quickly Handed Down by Grand Jury at Charleston-Colone Edwards Not Among the Indicted

Twelve indictments against six mem bers of the West Virginia legislature five brought under a felony statute and seven charging misdemeanors, it. connection with the votes taken on the election of a United States senator was the result of the first day's work of a special grand jury convened in the Kanawha intermediate court.

In addition to Delegates U. S. G. Rhodes, H. R. Asbury, David E. Hill and Rath Ruff and Senator B. A Smith, the five members of the legislature who were arrested last Tuesday on evidence secured by Burns operatives, another victim fell into the dragnet. He is Delegate George S. Vanmeter of Grant county, Civil war veteran.

Vanmeter was indicted under the misdemeanor statute and stands charged with accepting a bribe o $250. He is charged in the indict ment with receiving the bribe from Guy Biddinger, the Burns operative, who was supposedly a confidential agent of William Seymour Edwards.

No indictment was returned by the grand jury against Colonel Edwards, the senatorial candidate, who was charged in a warrant upon complaint of Delegate U. S. G. Rhodes with the attempted bribery of Delegate John H. Smith. The latter was before the grand jury and, after his testimony had been received an additional indictment was issued against Delegate Rhodes, charging him with the attempted bribery of the Tyler delegate with an offer of $2,000 for his vote.

The six accused members of the legislature were arraigned in court before Judge Black, following the return of the indictments and bond in the sum of $2,500 each was given. partments the impression is conveyed | They must answer to the charges on that the accounts of the fighting April 28 at the next term of the intermediate court. Burns detectives are said to have worked up the case and a dictagraph. government made overtures to the said to have been placed in Rhodes room, played an important part in Rhodes, the delegate who place transporting troops from northern Isaac E. Mann in nomination, is said to have been the game for which the prosecutor played from the beginning. and it was stated after the arrest that the proposition made by the govern- of the $22,000 paid out in marked money to the legislators he received not acted upon if the government $15,000. Duff, it is alleged, was given $2,000 and each of the others $1,000.

> "MOTHER" JONES ARRESTED With Several Others She Is Charged With Conspiracy.

The arrest of "Mother" Jones famous agitator; C. H. Boswell, editor or a Socialist paper; Paul J. Paulson of the International Organization of United Mineworkers of America; is capable of making the trip from Frank Partley, a Socialist leader, and others brought rapid sensational developments in the West Virginia coal strike situation.

"Mother" Jones and her associates are charged with conspiracy and as accessories before the fact in the death of Fred Bobbett, bookkeeper of the Paint Creek Colliery company in Mucklow.

Four additional companies of militia were ordered to the strike district by Governor Glasscock. Two are from Parkersburg and one each from Morgantown and Sutton. Six companies are now in the field,

BATHTUB TRUST GUILTY

Federal Jury Finds Combine in Criminal Conspiracy.

The so-called bathtub trust was found guilty of criminal conspiracy in restraint of trade by a jury in wenty federals had been killed on up my mind to sign a bill which in its United States district court at Detroit. The act as charged is a misdemeanor a warehouse, where the men were that ought in my opinion to be upheld and the penalty provides imprisonment not exceeding one year, or a fine of $5,000 or both.

Last November the so-called trust was dissolved by the supreme court in a civil suit. The criminal case was a retrial, the first trial having resulted in a disagreement. The jury required four hours to reach a verdict. Fines ranging from a $1 to $10,000 were imposed on the twenty-seven defendants in the convicted bathtub com-

Greek Fraternities Banned.

By a vote of 13 to 10 the trustees of Wooster (O.) university voted to abolish Greek fraternities. Judge Frank Taggart of Wooster and Samuel G. McLure of Youngstown are reported to have resigned because of the action taken. L. H. Severance, a rich Cleveland man, had refused to contribute to an endowment fund unless the fraternities were abolished.

Wilson Formally Declared Elected. With elaborate ceremony the senate and house in joint session canvassed the electoral votes of the various states of the Union and officially declared Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey and Thomas R. Marshall of Indiana elected president and vice pres-The Maderistas were by far the Judge Ward in New York sustained ident of the United States for the term beginning March 4.

INSANE YOUTH SHOOTS TWO ROCKWELL BILL Sunbury (Pa.) Lad Fires Upon Father and Chief of Police.

C. E. Rossiter, a business man of Sunbury, Pa., and Chief of Police Kerstetter were both shot and probably injured fatally when they at tempted to remove Rossiter's sixteen-year-old son from his home to an insane asylum.

The boy hid in the garret. When his father and the chief of police went up for him he opened fire with an old army musket. Rossiter was shot in the neck and Kerstetter received wounds in the head and stomach.

Druggists Are Bunkoed. Westmoreland county (Pa.) druggists were bunkoed by a stranger represent ing himself as a deputy sheriff. The man, it is said, would call on druggists and after exhibiting a badge would tell them he had information they were selling liquor without a license. After a chat the deputy would agree not to make a charge in consideration of a cash payment.

Checker Excitement Kills. Seth Wheeler, a patient in the North Warren (Pa.) State hospital, died as a result of excitement due to a game of checkers with another patient. Wheeler's men were in a tight position and he gave the game deep thought His opponent touched him and the body fell to the floor. Wheeler had been dead for almost ten minutes before his opponent knew it.

Eight Prizes For Best Corn.

For the purpose of encouraging boys under twenty-one years of age to engage in corn raising Dr. W. Frank Beck, Blair county (Pa.) representative of the state board of agriculture announces the offer of eight prizes for the best exhibit for the year, four for dent corn and four for flint corn. The prizes range from $20 to $3.

Deer Dies From Exposure Despite the fact that it had been blanketed and carefuly nursed, a deer that employes of the Penn Central Light and Power company at Altoona, Pa., rescued from the Juniata river after it had broken through the ice while trying to escape from pursuing dogs, died from exposure.

Oil City Man Has Freak Pig. A freak pig, which arrived in Oil City, Pa., addressed to W. E. Chelton, has been attracting considerable attention. It weighs 250 pounds, is nearly two years old, is pure white in color, perfect in condition and is possessed of six perfectly formed legs.

Leghorn Hen Lays a Large Egg. Daniel Slagle of Templeton, Pa., sent his son-in-law A. M. Dilty, of Vandergrift, an egg which measures 6 9-16 inches in circumference and 814 inches over the ends. It weighs exactly four ounces. A Leghorn hen produced the egg. Money Gone; Shot Ends Life. Albert Brechtel, forty-seven years old, a farmer of near York. Pa., after squandering, it is said, several thousand dollars recently inherited from a relative, killed himself by sending two bullets from a rifle into his head. Married in Mourning Gown. Believing that postponed marriages are unlucky Miss Sophia Crumb immodiately after attending the funera married to Frank E. McArran stil wearing her mourning gown. Mimic Duel Leads to Death. Alexander Samik, aged twelve, o

Shoaf, Pa., died as the result of a blow in the right temple given, it is alleged, by John Bankovich, twelve years old, with a pick handle in a quarrel over a game.

Freight Wreck Costs Two Lives. Two were killed, one was seriously injured and two others were slightly injured in a collision between two Pittsburg and Lake Erie freight trains near Layton, west of Connellsville, Pa.

Caught by Death at Age of 105.

Mrs. Judith Gompton, aged 105, died at Braddock, Pa. Up until her death she had the record of being the oldest negro woman in Braddock if not in western Pennsylvania. Convicted For Slaying Policeman.

Henry Vesber in Erie, Pa., was found guilty of murder in the second degree for killing Detective Sergeant John T. Grant. The jury was out four hours.

Fall Results Fatally.

Mrs. Madeline Moritz, aged ninety one of the oldest citizens of Meadville, Pa., is dead, the result of a fall several weeks ago in which she broke Bride Fifteen, Groom Seventeen.

teen, and Frank Rhodes, seventeen,

Janet Margaret Mitchell, aged fif-both of Waynesburg. Pa., eloped to Cumberland, Md., where they were Little Girl Burned to Death. Franco Cudic, aged five, died in her home in Pittsburg from burns received when her clothing caught fire while she was playing around a gas

Ninety Want License in Beaver. Ninety applications for liquor Meanse were filed in Beaver county. Pa., this year, an increase of ten over

Levi Shoemaker Dies. Levi Shoemaker, aged 101, of Berlin Somerset county, Pa., is dead at his RATES OF ADVERTISING:

One Square, one inch, one week ... $ 1 00 One Square, one inch, one month... One Square, one inch, 3 months..... 5 00 One Square, one inch, one year ..... 10 00 Two Squares, one year ..... Quarter Column, one year ............ 30 00 Half Column, one year ..... ____ 100 00 One Column, one year ... Legal advertisements ten cents per line

We do fine Job Printing of every description at reasonable rates, but it's cash on delivery.

Mexican Revolt Pictures; in Center John Barrett

Upper picture shows two types of guns used by the rebels and what the gunners look like. At the left in this picture is an up to date machine gun and at the right an old style muzzle loader. Bostom picture shows a street battle in Mexico. The man in the center is John Barrett, director of the Pan-American union, which is supported by the twenty-one republics of North and South America and the aid in the introduction of industrial. Caribbean, who wrote to President Taft proposing a plan of mediation.

> PUT UNION JACK AT POLE Captain Scott's Diary Tells of Successful Dash. The disaster which has overtaken Captain Robert F. Scott and four of his companions in the return journey from the south pole came as an utter surprise to London and cast a gloom over the community which has been unequalled since the death of King Edward. Confirmation of earlier reports was received in a message to the Royal Geographical society. Those to die with Scott were: Dr. E. domestic animals, forestry and other A. Wilson, chief of the scientific staff; wage-earning or productive work or Captain L. E. G. Oats of the Inniskillthe farm. Household arts education ing dragoons, Lieutenant H. R. Bowers of the Royal Indian marine, the commissariat officer, and Petty Officer E. The judiciary general committee of Evans of the British Royal navy.

the house has reported out the Stein Captain Scott's party reached the exact point where Roald Amundsen planted the Norwegian flag at the south pole. A Union Jack was set up. The first day at the pole, according to the diaries, was cloudy with the sun obscured. The next day was clear

Frank Gray of Philadelphia has put and the sun was visible. Sights were a bill in the house to limit the service taken. Captain Scott used a fourof jurors in the common pleas and inch theodolite. This was different quarter sessions court to one week. from the course of Captain Amundsen who used a sextant with an artificial commissioners would be requested to horizon, but the location of the pole publish them in the newspaper in the by the Norwegian and English excounty having the largest circulation. plorers differed by only half a mile. The Leslie resolution to investigate and thus both of them were practically the charges made against the Morat the same spot. ganza reform school was defeated in These facts were recorded in the dead explorers.

locuments found on the bodies of the

BUSINESS KEEPS STEADY

Stirring Events of Week Have Had Little Effect-Dun's Review. Dun's Review of Trade says this

"Business maintains its position of steady, conservative expansion, as yet unaffected in any material respect by the stirring events happening or impending in many parts of the world. Although the renewed war in the Balkan peninsula continues to put a strain upon the international markets, it is noteworthy that the situation in dissemination of false or misleading Parls seems easier. statements or assertions concerning "While the eastern railroads are threatened with a strike of firemen there is still a prospect of amicable Benson-Joint resolution for ratifiadjustment by arbitration. Railroad purchases of equipment continue to be Ehrhardt-Prohibiting frauds in obthe leading feature of the iron and taining minors certificates required steel trade, which maintains its favorin certain employments, and extendable aspects."

Turbulence in Japan. Residences of government officials in Japan are under constant guard because of the popular unrest now manifest in that country.

Farewell For "Uncle Joe." Attended by notables a farewell banquet was given retiring Congressman "Uncle Joe" Cannon in Wash-

PITTSBURG MARKETS. Butter-Prints, 39/6/39%; fubs, 38% 639. Eggs-Selected, 24625. Poultry

-Hens, live, 18. Cattle-Choice, $8.50@8.85; prime, $8.10@8.40; good: $7.75@8; tidy butchers, $7.50; fair, $646.75; common, $5 @6; common to good fat bulls, $4.50 @7: common to good fat cows, $3.50 @6.50; heifers, $4.25@7.75; cows and springers, $50@75. and Lambs-Prime wethers, $6.50@ 6.75; good mixed, $6 @ 6.40; fair mixed, $5@5.80; culls and common, $3@4; lambs, $5.50@9.25; veal calves, $10.50 Sell; heavy and thin calves, $768. Hogs-Prime heavy hogs, $8.65; heavy mixed, $8,70; mediums, heavy Yorkars, light Yorkers and pigs, $8.75; roughs, $7.50@ 7.85; Stags, $6.50@7.